

Blockade Runner™

COMING SOON!
for COLECOVISION and other Game Formats

Interplay proudly announces a new plateau in excitement and daring with Blockade Runner which features our advanced three dimensional graphics and ultra realistic sound effects. Skill levels can be adjusted throughout the game and the full control-panel puts you firmly in command.

Home base has been blockaded by the most diabolical enemy known to the Universe and it is up to you, as starship fleet commander, to save the lives of friends and comrades. Your daring flight takes you through a heavily mined asteroid belt where enemy starfighters lurk to bring about your destruction.
